FORESTERS MEET AT CEDAR RAPIDS

CONVENTION TO BE AN IMPORTANT ONE AS IT IS EXPECTED CHANGES WILL OCCUR.

Cedar Rapids, March 28.—Both Court Linn and Court Cedar of the Foresters of America are making elaborate arrangements for the grand convention, which will be held in Cedar Rapids June 7, 8 and 9. This convention will bring the Foresters of Iowa and Minnesota to Cedar Rapids. One hundred and fifty delegates will attend, and as these will bring their wives, about 300 persons will be present.

The convention will be one of importance for it is expected that some laws will be changed by the Foresters, and this fact will bring all delegates to Cedar Rapids, making the convention the greatest ever held by the Foresters of Iowa and Minnesota.

That the visitors will not forget Cedar Rapids after they return to their homes is already assured for Court Linn and Court Cedar are making preparations to entertain the visitors in a royal manner. Arrangements already have been made for a banquet, which will be held in Lattner's hall, and for several other important events. Committees have been appointed to confer with the Commercial club and the other booster clubs, and the local Foresters are taking steps to advertise this city among the visiting delegates.

George Lightner has been elected chairman of the convention and A. E. Groundwater, secretary. With these two men and a bunch of other live wires in charge, the convention is bound to be a great success.

CEDAR FALLS GETS HOME FOR AGED

Cedar Falls, March 28.—Among the prominent families in this city for many years have been the Pfeiffer and Mrs. Henry Pfeiffer, who for over forty years he preached the gospel in the Christian church and his labors extended all over southeastern Iowa and into Missouri. For many years Rev. Fordyce was president of the state association of his church and for thirty-three years he served the association as secretary. He retired from active labors in the church only when advanced age overtook him.

A more important part of his life work has been the years which he spent in the ministry. For over forty years he preached the gospel in the Christian church and his labors extended all over southeastern Iowa and into Missouri. For many years Rev. Fordyce was president of the state association of his church and for thirty-three years he served the association as secretary. He retired from active labors in the church only when advanced age overtook him.

Mr. Fordyce came to Iowa when but a youth of seventeen with his parents. His early life was spent amid the wild scenes of frontier settlements. He first lived in Lee county and then his parents moved to Van Buren county and after six years returned to Lee county. On March 27, 1846 Mr. Fordyce was married to Miss Mary Newby and they began housekeeping on a Lee county farm. At the end of three years the couple moved to Van Buren county and in 1873 moved to Jefferson county, where they have since resided. Mr. and Mrs. Fordyce were the parents of eight children, five of whom are yet living—Dr. Winfield Fordyce of this city, Eugene and Harry Fordyce, who reside in California, Thornton and Lewis who reside near Libertyville.

VALUABLE PEARLS FOUND.

Two Stones Discovered in Clams Along the River Near Ft. Dodge

Value $45 and $48.
Ft. Dodge, March 28.—Very valuable and beautiful pearls have been found in clams along the Des Moines river, and one of them in the heart of the city. Their value is $45 and $48. The finders are unknown.

Many men make it a business to search among clams along the river bed for pearls of value and many make the business quite profitable. However, it is rarely that pearls of such exquisite color and perfection are found here. Mr. Martin of the Huribut Jewelry store, which purchased the stones, says he has seldom seen finer stones. One is rather pink and the other deep cream in tint.

When asked who the men are from whom they were purchased, he could not say, the transaction having been consummated without the formality of learning the finders names. They told him, however, that one stone was found near the Great Western viaduct and the other north of the city, along the river bank.

Gordon, the successful candidates, carried all wards except the first, fifth and sixth. The complete vote on the ward aldermen follows:

CAPT. S. H. HARPER, CITY'S NEW MAYOR

MAYOR-ELECT HARPER.

Captain S. H. Harper and practically the entire ticket of which he was the standard bearer were victorious at the polls yesterday, defeating the democratic and socialist candidates for the most part by large pluralities. Captain Harper won out over T. J. Phillips by the immense plurality of 426 votes, carrying all wards in the city except the first and fifth. Captain Harper received fifteen more votes in the sixth ward than the democratic choice, thus accomplishing a feat that no republican majority candidate had performed in the past twenty or more years. M. L. Byrne, Cass Henderson and John T. Brady were the only successful democratic candidates on the city ticket proper, while F. A. Ehrmann and Patrick Leeney defeated their republican opponents in the first and sixth wards. John F. Peck, republican candidate for city assessor, led the republicans in point of pluralities in the entire city, while Frank T. Lynch, the successful aldermanic candidate in the third ward, received the greatest plurality in any one precinct.

The closest race in any ward was that between Henry Throne and Herman Bremhorst in the fourth ward, the former winning by five votes.

Walter Minnick, socialist candidate for police judge polled the largest vote in his party, securing 468.

The third ward clerks and judges deserve the thanks of the large crowd in the court office and in front of the building, by reporting the vote on the head of the ticket fifteen minutes after the close of the polls at 7 o'clock. The fifth ward judges and clerks completed their total count first, having the full ticket counted at 11:30 p. m.

The result on each city office by wards on the three tickets is complete as follows:

Otto Gillen, (S) 65
Leeney's plurality 18
Seventh Ward.
W. W. Cummings, (R) 326
Pete Leinhausen, (D) 273
Hugh Lanning, (S) 52
Cummings' plurality 53
